

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, March 26, 1880.
For the Middle Atlantic States warmer, cloudy weather, followed by rain, northeast veering to southeast winds, and falling barometer.

VERDANT GREEN.—An old man named Thomas Kelly, from Pennsylvania, left his home a few days ago for Fredericksburg to look at some iron ore deposits near that place. He stopped in Washington, and after looking at the sights to be seen in the "Capital of this great nation," as it is called by the "statesmen," he again commenced his journey, arriving in this city about 5:30. While the Fredericksburg train was passing through this city he was approached by a tall slender man, with a slight mustache, wearing a ruff colored coat and a felt hat, and giving him the name of Watson. This Watson got into conversation with the old man, and reported himself as a member of the road. He had plenty of money, but it was all in big bills, and he could not get them exchanged. Said the old man, I am glad to make your acquaintance, sir, and anything I can do for you will be done with pleasure. "Thank you," said Watson and left. In a short while he returned, and took his seat by the side of Kelly, pulled out a pocket book and "accidentally" displayed a big Confederate bill, which the old gentleman mistook for the genuine article. A conversation sprang up between them. Watson remarked that he owed a couple of hands on the train a small amount which he would like to pay, but he could not do it because he had no small money, and he supplemented this remark by saying, "by the way, we are both traveling to the same place, and if you could accommodate me by a loan, the money will be returned as soon as we reach Fredericksburg." The old man said yes, I have a little money with me that I can spare until I reach Fredericksburg, and in the presence of his heart pulled out $50, and handed it to the "paymaster." Watson then left the old man to meditate upon the kind act he had done. Kelly was not long alone, before a feeling came over him that his money was gone. He left his seat and went to look for the "paymaster," but he was nowhere to be found. He then got off the train and came to the station house, where he stated his case to Capt. Webster who put the police on the lookout for the swindler; but as yet he is still at large.

COUNTY SCHOOL ITEMS.—Supervisors of the County School, Messrs. George B. Adams, Chairman of Arlington District Board, and Henry J. Nevitt, Clerk of the City School Board, visited all the public schools in the county yesterday and found them very well attended—some, indeed, overcrowded, and evidently well taught and nurtured. In Washington District, both the schoolhouses have been considerably improved, by the addition of new windows, blackboards, &c., and the appearance of the colored children there, especially their female teachers, to the improvement in domestic economy among the people of their race, effected by the schools. There is to be an exhibition by the pupils of Walker School, near Beltsville, on the evening of the 5th of April, to aid the trustees in putting a fence round the school lot, and this is to be followed by exhibitions at Columbia (white) and Arlington (colored).

In Jefferson District, the necessity of paying for the new schoolhouse recently erected on the Washington road will require the closing of the schools at the end of the seventh month, which is greatly to be regretted, as they are progressing finely; but in Arlington they are expected to run to, and in Washington, at least nine months.

THE PRICE OF ICE.—From all that can be learned the price of ice will be higher in this city during the coming season than it was last summer. The ice has been already been sold in Baltimore at the following rates: To families, 50c per hundred pounds; to parties purchasing by the wagon load and doing their own hauling, 60c per hundred pounds; to butchers, grocers and packers and others using large quantities, 55c per ton. These figures are an advance of one hundred per cent. to families and about sixty per cent. to large consumers. In justification of the increase the dealers say that there is not a pound of ice gathered on the Susquehanna river this season, and that the supply will have to be brought from Maine, where the crop was good, to meet the demand. The ice of this city has not been announced their price yet, but they say, while there will undoubtedly be an advance, the figures will not be as high as those of the Baltimore dealers.

GOOD FRIDAY.—To-day, Good Friday, the anniversary of the burial and crucifixion of our Saviour, was observed as a day of mourning in the Catholic and Episcopal Churches. In the Catholic Church the services were stripped of everything typical of brightness or joy, and it is the only day in the year in which no mass is said. Services were held in St. Mary's Church to-day at eight o'clock a. m., and at night at seven and a half o'clock. Rev. Father McDevitt of Woodstock College, Md., an able and eloquent preacher, will deliver a sermon on "The Passion of Christ." Services were also held to-day in the Episcopal Churches as follows: St. Paul's and Christ Churches at eight a. m., and Christ Church at eleven a. m. To-morrow, Holy Saturday, in the Catholic Church, the sacred fire and water of the baptismal font will be blessed, and on Easter Sunday the church will celebrate the resurrection of Christ with lights, joyous music and bright vestments.

THE COAL TRADE.—The shipments from the mines of the Cumberland coal region by rail for the week ending Saturday, March 20, 1880, were 8,190 tons, and two boats left Cumberland last Wednesday, carrying 110,022 tons of coal. The Cumberland Times says: "The strike of the employees of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad Company still continues. The train was not sent out from Piedmont yesterday, as the company proposed, no engineer but found who would willingly run it. Notices issued by Superintendent Barwell have been posted at Piedmont and elsewhere, advising for employees, and offering at the advanced rates of the company, 10 per cent."

THE SEINE BOAT CASE.—The hearing of the habeas corpus in the case of Police Officer Joseph Harper, Jos. Ellis and C. E. Buro, arrested on a Maryland warrant, charging them with the larceny of a seine boat, which had been confiscated by the sheriff of Port Tobacco, Md., fixed for hearing in Washington yesterday, was postponed until to-morrow, when Messrs. Benjamin Davenport and E. G. Hamilton will appear as counsel for the State of Maryland.

THE EXTENSION PARTY.—The Essex Institute, a historical society from Salem, Mass., arrived in this city from Richmond, where they had been on a visit for the past few days, and proceeded on a visit to Washington, from which place they left last morning for the North. They expressed themselves well pleased with the reception they had met with in the South, and to-morrow the information that a good report might be expected from them.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.—Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar, will meet to-night at their usual place, at 7 o'clock, in full dress uniform, and proceed to a body to the Methodist Protestant Church, where the annual Grand Convocation will be delivered before them. Rev. W. R. Graham, a member of the Order.

COLORADO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.—The principal and teachers of Hallowell school proposed, with the approbation of the school authorities, to go to Colorado for a winter, and among the colored girls of the city, to open every Saturday. Such a school will contribute much to the welfare of the colored race.

AMUSEMENTS.—Minstrel Troupe.—The manager of Sarcopa Hall, Mr. J. Marriott Hill, has, at some trouble, made arrangements for two first class entertainments to be given in this city. The first will be to-morrow night, given by Baird's Famous New Orleans Minstrels, accompanied by Mr. Charles Faddy, a native of Alexandria, and a star in his profession. The concert given by this company are free from objectionable features, and a full house is predicted for them.

Concert.—On Monday evening next Madame Teresa Cremon, assisted by Miss Hunt and others of Baltimore, will appear before our citizens, at Sarcopa Hall, in a grand concert. The concert which they will introduce to our Alexandria audience is the same with which they achieved such a marked success at the Congregational Church on March 10. It is hoped that the citizens will extend to these ladies and gentlemen the hearty reception to which their merits entitle them. They will give a series of concerts in Richmond next week.

PAPER "SUBMERGED."—The edition of a weekly paper, circulated in Alexandria, but printed in Washington, was seized yesterday evening by Robert Ballenger and George Nowland, on the half past five o'clock boat from Washington, which being brought to this city in charge of two men, and thrown into the river. A considerable excitement prevailed for a time on the boat, during which pistols were drawn by the assistants, but as soon as they had accomplished their purpose, quiet was restored. When Nowland and Ballenger arrived here they appeared at the station house and offered to give themselves up, but the offer was declined on the ground that the police authorities had no jurisdiction in the case, as the offense was committed in the District of Columbia. It is reported that a warrant will be issued in Washington for the arrest of the men and placed in the hands of a United States Marshal.

COUNTY COURT.—Hon. James Sangster, Judge presiding—Cleveland Bridge and Iron Company vs. The Board of Supervisors of Alexandria County: upon an appeal; order of Board rejecting claim reversed and Board ordered to issue to the Cleveland Bridge and Iron Company a warrant for $150.83 in satisfaction of the claim of said Company against the county.

In the matter of the account of Hesselius Smith, adm'r. d. b. n. of Jos. Smith, deceased. The administrator was ordered to pay the commission's fee for settling the account of the said Hesselius Smith.

Com. vs. W. T. Walker; assault and battery; copias for fine ordered.
Cont adjourned till court in court.

FUNERAL OF MR. SUMMERS.—The funeral of the late Mr. John Summers, whose death was noticed in yesterday's Gazette, took place this afternoon from his late residence, and was attended by a large number of friends. Rev. Dr. David Wilson, of Washington officiated, and Rev. Mr. D. Widdie, of the Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Mr. B. y'e of the M. E. Church South, were present and took part in the services. The remains were interred in the Methodist Protestant cemetery.

THE RIVER.—Parties arriving here to-day report that the late gale on the Bay and lower Potomac was very severe, but there were no marine disasters. Six or seven large schooners are also reported in the river below, bound up. The new Steamship America, built some what after the order of the New York Steamship, is to be used for the transportation of coal by the New Central Coal Company, passed up to Georgetown to-day, with all colors flying.

POLICE REPORT.—The monotony of the past few days at the station house was broken to-day by the appearance of two prisoners.

Don Nelson, colored, for getting drunk and abusing his mother, was fined and discharged. "Mick" Puller, also colored, who got drunk and caused a disorder after the office hours, and consequently too late for trial, was locked up until to-morrow morning.

RAFFLE OF A BARREL OF FLOUR.—The barrel of flour donated to the Irish relief fund by Messrs. Back & Holding, of the Cool Alloy Mills, West Royal, Va., was raffled at the store of Messrs. Harrow & Bro. last night, and won by Mr. W. F. Graves, although not present, a friend turning the dice at 46. The sum of $15 was realized from the flour, besides affording considerable fun to the gentlemen holding chairs.

PHOTOGRAPHY.—The Hydration steam engine, decorated and burnished, with engineer Joseph H. Young, and three others of the company; the M. E. Church South, the Market House, and McBurney's building, were photographed to-day, by Mr. Thomas Marshall, the King street photographer.

PERSONAL.—Mr. B. George Thomas, formerly of this city, but now of Baltimore, is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Mr. Wapalo Summers, a native of this city, but now of Barnesville, Ga., is in the city.

Mr. Robert C. Lee is also in the city.

RECOVERING.—Young White, of London, the student of St. John's Academy, who laid his foot mangled, at the Midland depot, on Monday evening, is rapidly recovering from his injuries, though still confined to his bed.

ARRIVAL OF FISH.—The arrival of fish at Fishtown to-day has been very light in consequence of the late severe weather. What few herring there were there sold $14 a hundred thousand.

LOCAL REVENUES.
Messrs. Robert L. Eble and Robert Prettyman are very ill at their residences in this city. Mayor Smith contributed $10 to the Irish Relief Fund to-day.

The Committee on Public Property of the City Council met last night at the Mayor's office.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

Business is generally dull, and the weather for the past few days has had rather a depressing effect, but strong hopes are entertained that with the development of spring things will take a more favorable turn. Money matters are in statu quo, the banks accommodating the wants of the business community without any inconvenience at the usual rates. In Baltimore rates remain as quoted last week, and the money market is very easy. Call loans were rated at 6 per cent and 1 3/4 commission in New York yesterday, but the market closed easier at 6. U. S. bonds are generally firm, and the 4 per cents were a better yesterday. State securities quiet, and Virginia especially weak in view of the Auditor's attitude in relation to the receipt of coupons in payment of taxes. Consols sold yesterday at 104 1/2, closing 104 3/4, and 104 1/4 sold at 104 1/2 and closing 104 3/4. Peabody's were nominally 24 1/2, and coupons depressed, the consols detached selling at 80, and closing at 80 1/2. Railroad stocks dull. A few shares of B & O common sold yesterday at 157, closing at 156 1/2 bid, 157 asked. Local shares are quiet but steady, and we quote:

The market closes dull and heavy, and prices are dropping. Flour is without change, with light sales at quotations. But little wheat was offered to-day, none of which was Choice Lancaster, which would bring from 141 to 145, and small sales were made at 135. Corn is lower, with fair receipts, and sales at 1000 bushels at 55 for mixed, and 57 for yellow. No Rye or Oats reported. Country produce is scarce and wanted at quotations. Bacon is dull and quiet, and shoulders are in. Other articles unchanged.

RICHMOND MARKET, March 25.—The market is quiet generally. In Flour there is but little doing, and quotations are about as last week, with $1.50 for fine to $1.85 for fancy family bran. Very light offerings of Wheat, with small sales at 145 for white, 143 for Lancaster, 145 1/4 for mixed, and 143 1/2 for Fultz. Sales of white corn at 50 1/2, and 50 for mixed. Nothing doing in Rye or Oats, and quotations nominal.

LYNCHBURG MARKET, March 25.—The market is without change. Flour steady at 60 1/2 for fine to fancy family brand. Wheat in good demand and steady, with light offerings. Quotations 130 1/4 to 135. Corn steady at 55 1/2 for mixed and white. Oats in less active request and prices weaker at 45 1/2 for spring, and 50 1/2 for winter. Rye nominally 65 1/2.

FREDERICKSBURG MARKET, Mar. 25.—The market is quiet in the absence of receipts of produce, which have very materially fallen off. Flour is firm but quiet at 75 1/2 for fancy family, and 75 for extra and ordinary family. The offerings of Wheat are very small, scarcely sufficient to warrant quotations, which are 150 for choice red, 145 1/4 for good, and 140 1/4 for fair. The heavy Corn are small, and the sales at 60 1/2 for prime white, and 58 1/2 for less. No Rye offering, and quotations nominal. No Oats offering, but the quotations are 45 1/2.

BALTIMORE SUGAR AND COFFEE MARKET.—Sugars—There is nothing doing here in raw Sugars. At New York the market is dull and somewhat nominal, as follows: Fair to good refining at 12 1/2, and centrifugal No 7 to 10 1/2 at 11 1/2.

Coffee—The market is very dull and heavy, with 14 1/2 quoted nominally for fair. There is no demand at the moment, and the situation generally is devoid of interest. We quote nominally as follows: Ordinary 12 1/2; fair 14 1/2; good 15; prime 16 1/2.

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET, March 25.—Beef—Home raised slaughterers were paying 8 1/2 for common and medium steers; 9 1/2 for fair to good do, and 10 1/2 for prime. Shipments to-day were 331 live cattle.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade was limited, and the feeling is unsettled. Sheep sold at 7 1/2 to 7 3/4 per lb; yearling lambs at 7 1/2 to 7 3/4, and spring lambs at 5 1/2 to 6 1/2.

Hogs—None sold on live weight. Toner of the market a shade firmer and more steady. With city dressed western hogs selling at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 per 100 lbs, good corn fed Ohio hogs should be worth $4.50 per 100 lbs.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, March 25.—Beef Cattle—The small number reshipped here—some five or six car loads—did their owners but little good, and those that were subsequently sent East found no better, if as well.

The receipts since Monday exceed slightly 1,000 head, half of which have been disposed of, leaving now in the yards 600 head unsold. Trade has been fair. We quote clipped sheep at 4 1/2, and wool sheep 5 1/2 to 6 1/2.

Hogs—The receipts since Monday number 1,000 head, and the market is about the same as last week. Trade has been fair at the figures ruling on Monday—5 1/2 to 5 3/4. The quality continues to be on a par with the offerings on Monday.

CHICAGO CATTLE MARKET, Mar. 25.—Hogs—Receipts to-day were 1,000 all grades active and 5 1/2 to 6 1/2. Receipts mostly of common and medium; mixed packing 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; choice heavy 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; light 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; market closing quiet and all sold. Cattle—Receipts 7,500 head; shipments 2,400; supply excessive and prices 10 1/2 lower, shipping slowly at 9 1/2 to 10 1/2; heavy do and yearling at 2 1/2 to 3 1/2; butchers' weaker at 2 1/2. Sheep—Receipts 1,000 head; shipments 800; fairly active and steady; 5 1/2 to 6 1/2; one lot of fine merino at $6.70.

QUEENSTOWN CATTLE MARKET, March 25.—800 cattle were off on 22 1/2 to 24 1/2 shipped away at 13 1/2 to 14 1/2 over. Prices in market last week. Best on sale 15 1/2 to 16 1/2 for good 4 1/2; medium 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; ordinary 3 1/2 to 4 1/2; bulls and cows 3 1/2 to 4 1/2.
